

Stops Lameness

Sloan's Liniment is a reliable remedy for any kind of horse lameness. Will kill the growth of spavin, curb or splint, absorb enlargements, and is excellent for swellings, fistula and thrush.

Here's Proof:
"I used Sloan's Liniment on a horse for high lameness, and it cured him. I am now without a horse of any account; have bought many of it, but any other remedy for pain."
—L. J. KIRBY, Louisville, Ky.

"Sloan's Liniment is the best remedy I have removed very large blue spots off a horse with it. I have found a number of cracks on a mare that was badly laid. I have also healed raw, sore heels on three horses. I have healed grain heat on a mare that could hardly walk."
—ANTHONY G. HYER, Oakland, Pa., Route No. 4.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is good for all farm stock.
"My horse had hog cholera three days before we got your liniment, which I was advised to try. I have used it now for three days and my horse is almost well. One hog died before I got the liniment, but I have not lost any since."
—A. J. McCARTHY, Louisville, Ind.

TOPSY BOY.

Shetland stallion foaled May 10th, 1910. Black, with white on shoulders, white over quarters, white legs, large white star in forehead, imitation white saddle on back. Sired by Givens pony, he by Handley's Blue Eyes, let dam Detsy a very fine pony, that could trot in three minutes and fine as a thoroughbred.

Topsy can trot fast, pace, running walk and high step. I showed him at Lancaster fair at 2 1-2 months of age, in sweetstake ring against alleged ponies and he took the premium. I refused $200 for him three times before he was four months old.

Will make the season of 1912 at my place in Crab Orchard, Ky., 300 yards from post office on Dripping Springs road at $10 to insure a living colt.

"ANGEL" OF CAMP DICK ROBINSON DEAD.

Mrs. Eliza Farris Passes Away in Lancaster, Aged 91 Years—Her Interesting Life.

Lancaster, April 18.
Mrs. Eliza Hoskins Farris, perhaps Lancaster's most highly-regarded resident, died at the city hospital, after an illness of several weeks due to a stroke of paralysis. Had Mrs. Farris' life been spared a fortnight longer, she would have reached her ninety-second milestone on the 23d of April.

In the passing of Mrs. Farris' death claims one of the most interesting women of Central Kentucky. Mrs. Farris enjoyed the distinction (notwithstanding a $1,000 claim for her benefit had been turned down in the United States Senate, after a strong plea in her behalf by Senator W. O. Bradley) of having been the recipient of a $1,050 private purse made up for her by twelve United States Senators who were impressed with the justice of her claim.

Mrs. Farris, or "Aunt Eliza", as she was affectionately known, appeared as if she might have stepped out of a portrait done of some patriotic of other generations. Her unique headress, snow-white, swaying ringlets, her softly modulated voice, her gliding movement and quaint, impressive gestures, were all of a character that impressed themselves on the memory.

Mrs. Farris was truly a historic personage in that her early life was so closely interwoven with the most stirring material incidents of Garrard county, and that her people have been prominent both in politics and military affairs. Mrs. Farris before her marriage was a Miss Hoskins, of lower Garrard, the daughter of William Hoskins, a wealthy planter of that locality, and sister of William A. Hoskins, a famous Federal officer of the Civil War.

Miss Eliza Hoskins at the dawn of prime of a young woman and her highly cultured faculties were keenly observant of many of the interesting incidents connected with the history of the first Federal camp south of the Ohio River.

"Camp Dick Robinson," was located on a farm of 335 acres, six miles north of Lancaster, and originally a part of the old Hoskins place, the girlhood home of Mrs. Farris, immediately across the road. It was not only as a hostess, but also as a tender nurse that Mrs. Farris then Miss Hoskins, distinguished herself. What Florence Nightingale, the English philanthropist, was to the hospitals during the Crimean war, Miss Eliza Hoskins was to the sick and languishing at "Camp Dick Robinson," and not only did her service extend to the occupants of the Federal station, but also to any disabled Confederate that needed her ministrations.

It was impossible for a time to fill the orders from the Garrard county camp for food and clothing, and in the absence of tents the soldiers were assigned quarters in a grove of sugar maples, where exposure to the elements rendered it necessary to build a hospital. Miss Eliza saw many a raw recruit only thinly clad fall a victim to dread pneumonia, and many others overcome by an epidemic of measles. Other hospitals were built and the nearby dwellings were filled with the ill for lack of other accommodations. The Hoskins home was thrown open to the unfortunates, even the large old parlor being filled with the sufferers. Every day Miss Eliza made her round at the bedside, not only in her own home, but also at every house where a languishing soldier

PERUNA SAVED MY LIFE.

"I Recommend It Wherever I Am."

Mrs. John M. Stabler, bottle of Peruna and commenced taking it. I found I was getting some better, but thought I was not doing as well as I might. So I wrote The Peruna Medical Department, to see what they thought about me. They gave me special directions and medical advice. To our astonishment I improved and am to-day a well woman and weigh as much as I ever did in my life.

"I tell my friends that Peruna saved my life. I recommend it wherever I am, and when any of our folks are sick, I give them Peruna with success."

needed a woman's ministry. In making these daily calls her father accompanied her in the carriage, while a boy followed with a spring wagon full of provisions. By her tender care many a life was saved, and it was for this volunteer service that Senator Bradley so urgently pleaded a claim in her behalf in the United States Senate.

The Thirty-first Ohio Regiment of Infantry presented Miss Hoskins with a $150 silver service, which she prized as one of her most valued possessions. It was given as a token of their appreciation of her kindness as a nurse.

Only once did Miss Eliza refuse to furnish a meal, and then only after her hospitality had been imposed upon for weeks. Her subterfuge to close doors to self-invited guests was unique. She heard from Lancaster that seventy soldiers would dine with her that day; she quickly ordered a negro to make a pallet in the kitchen and assume all the symptoms of a serious illness. When the captain and his company rode up and gave orders, Miss Hoskins apparently assented and then remarked she thought one of her slaves had smallpox and asked the officer to come in and diagnose the case. With a determined refusal he cried, "Excuse us please," and then with a quickly given command, "Right about face, double quick march," the whole company hurried away and was soon lost to the intrepid woman's view.

Miss Hoskins was married about the close of the war to James Farris, a Confederate soldier. Her husband has been dead nearly twenty years.

Miss Farris though a nonagenarian, retained full use of all her faculties till a few weeks ago, and almost to the last still possessed brilliant conversational powers.

But not only as a hostess and brilliant entertainer did Mrs. Farris shine in the best years of her womanhood, but she had been none the less gifted as a housewife and seamstress. Her quilts were veritable works of art and were shown at Danville, Lexington, St. Louis and other county and State fairs and have many times won premiums in the way of handsome cups, ewers and other pieces of silver service.

Mrs. Farris had by far outlived all of her generation, her nearest relatives being Mesdames Dobbins and Robert Harding, of Danville; Mrs. R. L. Elkin, of this city, her great nieces, and Major William Hoskins Collier, of Louisville, a great nephew.

HARRY CAMNITZ MAY PLAY IN LEXINGTON

(Lexington Leader.)
Harry Camnitz, a brother of Pittsburgh National League team was in Lexington Wednesday to see President Sheets of the Colts in reference to signing with the Colts for this season. Harry Camnitz is also a big league pitcher, having played with several different clubs in the majors, but has not signed so far this year. President Sheets is anxious to secure the services of this lad but no agreement could be reached Wednesday, as Camnitz wanted more money than the salary limit in the Blue Grass League would allow. Sheets is still negotiating with this big twirler and it is hoped that he will be signed before the opening of the season May 1.

KIDNEY TROUBLE RELIEVED IN TWO HOURS

A Speedy Cure.
I derived so much benefit from the use of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root that I believe it will be most important for the public to know of its worth.

Last November I was suffering severely with kidney and bladder trouble. The burning pain was terrible. I sent to you for one trial bottle of Swamp-Root and it relieved me in about two hours. After taking the small trial bottle, could feel no more pain, so purchased one fifty-cent bottle of Swamp-Root. After taking the contents have not felt one pain from the kidneys or bladder since.

You are at liberty to publish this testimonial should you wish to.
Yours very respectfully,
W. H. WARREN,

Charlie Whitemoon, the Cowboy Herbalist.

Whose wonderful Root & Herb medicines have been making such wonderful cures for years past in Kentucky, extends greetings to the readers of The Interior Journal, through the courtesy & splendid rates offered by its editor. The name of my great universal remedy, is composed of 16 Roots & Herbs. It is an ideal spring & fall tonic, stomach, liver, kidney, bladder & blood remedy. Com-Cel-Sar is a body & nerve builder of great merit & should be used both spring & fall for putting the blood & general system in fine condition to meet the necessary changes taking place at those seasons. Com-Cel-Sar is sold at all drug stores, tho' some times, you find a druggist who for some reason will not handle my remedies. In that case, I will, on receipt of the price of $1.00 send it postage paid any place on earth. Com-Cel-Sar is packed & backed by a legal guarantee that gets back your dollar if Com-Cel-Sar fails to do what you buy it for. Call for Com-Cel-Sar, also for Charlie White-Moon's Science Soap which is made of pure vegetable oils for Human skin Only, 10c a bar, 3 for 25c & money back if you don't happen to like it.

My years of experience as a cowboy & among the Indians, give me a peculiar fitness & knowledge of the value of Roots & Herbs as medicines, & I would like to send every reader of this paper & any friends of yours, a copy of the greatest book of its kind ever published, entitled, "The Cowboy Herbalist". It is filled with startling facts obtainable no place else, & costs you nothing but a post card, & if you want a fine calendar, say so & I will mail you one for 1912, lithographed in five colors, a fine likeness of myself, entitled "Ready for the round-up".

All letters cheerfully answered, information given relative to Roots & Herbs as medicines. Catholic or Protestant, Read Your Bible Ezekial 47:12. Ecclesiastes 30: 14, 15, 16, 17, also Chapter 38; 4, 6, 9, 15. St. Paul to the Romans, 14:2. Wisdom of Solomon 7:17-20. Revelations 22:2 Psalm 103:14. Write these verses down, then read them. The Bible says "Physician Heal Thyself" & so, if modern doctors with mercury & other poisons can't heal themselves, what chances have You to be cured?

Yours for a long, clean, healthy & successful life.
